Sustainable Growth Coalition Welcomes Allianz Life Insurance Company of North America as Newest Member

Minneapolis—This week, the Sustainable Growth Coalition announced the addition of its newest member, Allianz Life Insurance Company of North America, a leading provider of annuities and life insurance. The company's headquarters are located in Golden Valley, Minnesota.

Allianz Life joins nearly 30 other companies and organizations at the Sustainable Growth Coalition, a business-led partnership harnessing their expertise to advance the next frontier of corporate sustainability — the circular economy. Focused on clean water, energy and materials, the Coalition is leading to address and collaborate on regional and global environmental challenges, advance a strong, competitive economy and improve outcomes for people, businesses, consumers and communities.

"We are so excited to welcome Allianz Life as our newest member of the Sustainable Growth Coalition. Their commitment to people, community and building a thriving, circular economy makes them a wonderful new addition to our Coalition," said Amy Fredregill, Managing Director of the Coalition. "Across sectors and industries, we bring businesses and organizations together to share ideas, best practices and drive solutions to some of our world's most pressing problems from equity to climate."

"Allianz Life is fully committed to bringing about positive change through its environmental and social efforts," said Todd Hedtke, chief investment officer for Allianz Life. "Our commitment to ESG through our long-term, sustainable investing philosophy and scale, as well as our ongoing commitment to social change within the community aligns with the mission of the Sustainable Growth Coalition and we look forward to being part of a group that is creating lasting and positive change."
